The value of membership fees due from Founder Members is stipulated in the resolution adopted during the Association's Founding Assembly. The value of membership fees due from Extraordinary Members, who are Founder Members of the Association, can be changed according to the procedure defined in other provisions of these Statutes.

§ 4 – termination of the membership

1) The membership in the Association terminates:

a) upon the resignation from the membership. Declaration on resignation from the membership shall be submitted to the Board in writing. Striking from the list of the Members of the Association is effective at the end of the month, in which the declaration on resignation was filed in the Associations' office,

b) upon the dissolution of the Association,

c) upon the exclusion from the Association by the Supervisory Board due to gross violation of the Association's Statutes and Board or Supervisory Board's resolutions adopted in compliance with these Statutes; in particular the delay in payment of the membership fee exceeding 30 calendar days shall be deemed as the gross violation of the Association's Statutes,

d) in case the Member of the Association ceases to exist or dies.

2) The resolution on the exclusion from the Association is adopted by the majority of 2/3 of votes of the members of the Supervisory Board. The resolution on the exclusion includes statement of reasons. In case of adopting the resolution on the exclusion of a Member, the excluded Member has the right to appeal to the Supervisory Board within 14 days from the day of receiving the resolution on exclusion from the Association. The Supervisory Board adopts the resolution on the exclusion of the Member from the Association as a result of the appeal filed by this

Member, at the next meeting of the Supervisory Board, yet no later than within 3 months from the day of receiving the appeal. The Employer is ultimately excluded from the Association, if the majority of 3/4 of members of the Supervisory Board present at the meeting vote in favour of excluding this Member from the Association. The resolution on the exclusion from the Association includes the statement of reasons.

3) In the period from the day of adopting the resolution on the exclusion from the Association by the Supervisory Board, until the day of the meeting of the Supervisory Board, on which the Employer's appeal is considered, yet lasting no longer than 6 months, the Employer is suspended in his rights and obligations as a Member of the Association.

3a) Ordinary Members, who joined the Association in the course of a given payment period, shall pay the membership fee due for that period in the full amount, as stipulated in the resolution on the admission to the Association as an Ordinary Member adopted by the Supervisory Board.

4) No claims in connection with the termination of the membership in the Association may be filed against the Association's assets.

§5 – rights and obligations of Ordinary Members

1) Ordinary Members, who have paid membership fees due in given payment period in the full amount, are entitled to appoint their representative in the Supervisory Board of the Association. Appointing the representative to the Supervisory Board is made by submitting a written declaration of the Ordinary Member. Appointing the representative to the Supervisory Board is effective to the Association from the moment of noticing the Board of the Association. The notice shall be sent via registered mail or via courier. The Ordinary Member is entitled to change his representative to the Supervisory Board at any time. The change of the representative to the Supervisory Board is effective to the Association from the moment the Board of the Association receives notice on this fact. The notice shall be sent via registered mail or via courier.

2) Apart from rights indicated in clause 1) of this paragraph, Ordinary Members have rights to:

a) initiate works, which serve pursuing the statutory aims of the Association. The aforesaid works will be conducted in a workgroup, established by at least one member of the Board and one Ordinary Member or one Extraordinary Member, or established by at least two Ordinary Members of the Association, controlling at least 25% of the votes in the Supervisory Board. The workgroup can also consist of representatives of other Members of the Association or other persons invited to participate in its works. The decision on the execution of the workgroup's arrangements shall be adopted by the Board. Each Ordinary Member has the right to appoint any person to participate in works of a workgroup;

3) Ordinary Members are obliged to:

a) comply with provisions of the Statutes and resolutions of the Board and the Supervisory Board adopted in accordance with the Statutes of the Association,

b) pay membership fees on time.

4) In case of delay in payment of the membership fee, the Ordinary Member loses all of his membership rights and privileges, as stated in § 5 clause 2) or granted by the Board until the time the Supervisory Board adopts a resolution on the expulsion from the Association. In particular, such Member cannot participate in works of workgroups and use any discounts.

5) The loss of membership rights and privileges, resulting from the delay in payment of membership fee is automatic, yet occurs no earlier than after 14 days past the due date of payment, which was indicated in the account note issued by the Association.

6) In case Ordinary Member who lost his rights under the procedure described in § 5 clause 4) and 5) of these Statutes, makes the payment of the overdue membership fee in the full amount together with interest on late payment, he recovers all of his membership rights and privileges, with which he has been vested pursuant to § 5 clause 2) of the Statutes or which have been granted to him by the Board. The recovery of membership rights and privileges is automatic, and takes effect upon the expiry of a 3-day period starting from the day when the overdue membership fee and the interest are transferred to the Association's bank account.

§6 – rights and duties of Extraordinary Members

1) Extraordinary Members have the right to:

a) initiate works, which serve pursuing the statutory aims of the Association. The aforesaid works will be conducted in a workgroup, established by at least one member of the Board and one Ordinary Member or one Extraordinary Member. The workgroup can also consist of representatives of other Members of the Association. The decision on the execution of the workgroup's arrangements shall be adopted by the Board. Each Extraordinary Member has the right to appoint any person to participate in the works of the workgroup;

b) access to and use the information about the Association's activity;

c) file motions concerning the activity of the Association;

d) participate in the discussion list;

2) Extraordinary Members are obliged to:

- a) comply with the provisions of the Statues and resolutions of the Board and the Supervisory Board adopted in accordance with the Statues of the Association,
- b) pay membership fees on time.

2a) Extraordinary Members, admitted to the Association in the course of a given payment period, shall pay the membership fee due for that period in the full amount, as stipulated in the written reply of the Board concerning the admission to the Association as an Extraordinary Member.

3) In case of a delay in payment of the membership fee, Extraordinary Member loses all of his membership rights and privileges, as stated in § 6 clause 1) or granted by the Board, until the time the Supervisory Board adopts a resolution on the expulsion from the Association. In particular such Extraordinary Member cannot participate in the works of the workgroup or benefit from the discounts.

4) The loss of the membership rights and privileges, resulting from the delay in payment of the membership fee is automatic, yet occurs no earlier than after 14 days past the due date of payment which was indicated in the account note issued by the Association.

5) In case Extraordinary Member who lost his rights under the procedure described in § 6 clause 3) and 4) of these Statutes, makes the payment of the overdue membership fee in the full amount together with interest on late payment, he recovers all of his membership rights and privileges, with which he has been vested pursuant to § 6 clause 1) of the Statutes or which have been granted to him by the Board. The recovery of membership rights and privileges is automatic, and takes effect upon the expiry of a 3-day period starting from the day when the overdue membership fee and the interest are transferred to the Association's bank account.

Chapter V.

The Authorities of the Association

§ 7 – the authorities of the Association

The authorities of the Association are:

- 1) The Board,
- 2) The Supervisory Board.

§ 8 – The Board

1) The Board shall consist of 2 up to 7 persons. The exact number of the members of the Board will be defined by the Supervisory Board. The member of the Board cannot simultaneously be the representative of the Member of the Association in the Supervisory Board. The members of the Board may be remunerated for the management of the Association's affairs. The remuneration will be determined in the resolution of the Supervisory Board.

2) Members of the Board shall be elected by the Supervisory Board in a secret vote for the 24 month term. Upon the expiry of their term of office, members of the Board continue to perform their duties until the new Board is constituted.

3) The request for changes regarding the composition of the Board may be filed as the result of a decision adopted by at least 25% of votes of the members of the Supervisory Board of the Association. The deposition of the Member of the Board is a result of the Supervisory Board's resolution adopted by a simple majority of votes.

4) Two members of the Board acting jointly are authorized to make representations, including incurring obligations and sign statements on behalf of the Association. The representations addressed to the Association may be made and written communications may be served on one member of the Board.

5) The meeting of the Board shall have a quorum, if at least 51% of the members of the Board are present.

6) The meetings of the Board may be held in the form of teleconference or in other forms enabling remote participation – with the use of means of communication which ensure undisturbed proceedings. In such case the President of the Board or person appointed by him shall prepare the minutes of the meeting, which will include all of the resolutions adopted at the meeting and the number of votes given on each resolution. The minutes shall be sent to all the members of the Board for their signature.

6a) In case the meeting of the Board cannot be held but there is a necessity to adopt resolutions, the President of the Board may order passing of the resolutions in a circular mode or by the wiki platform, sending the drafts of the resolutions to all Members of the Board. The President of the Board or the person appointed by him, prepares the minutes of the proceedings described above, which will include all of the adopted resolutions and the number of votes given on each resolution.

7) The resolutions of the Board shall be adopted by the simple majority of votes. In case of a tie the President of the Board shall have the casting vote.

8) The tasks of the Board are, in particular, to:

a) draft plans of the Association's activity,

b) submit to the Supervisory Board annual activity reports and financial statements,

c) set fees for the services provided by the Association,

d) define the detailed rules relating to the Association's finance,

e) grant certificates to Employers and to products or services,

f) perform other tasks stipulated in these Statutes and all other matters that have not expressly been reserved for the Supervisory Board.

9) At the request of the Ordinary Member of the Association, The Board shall announce the composition of the Supervisory Board via registered mail or via e-mail, and send to this Ordinary Member, within 21 days, documents containing information on:

a) the composition of the Supervisory Board, including: the name, surname and the name of the Ordinary Member, whose interests are being represented by him,

b) the overall value of the membership fees paid by all the Ordinary Members in the current payment period.

c) the apportionment of the votes among the Ordinary Members.

10) The document containing the information defined in clause 9 item a), b) and c) of this paragraph, shall be sent by the Board without undue delay in case of any changes, described in § 5 clause 1) of Chapter IV. as well as in case the new Employer joins the Association as an Ordinary Member or the Ordinary Member is being expelled from the Association.

§ 9 – The Supervisory Board

1) The Supervisory Board constitutes the highest authority of the Association. The Supervisory Board is composed of representatives of Ordinary Members, who have paid all the membership fees due for given payment period in the full amount.

2) The Supervisory Board elects from among its members the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and two Deputy chairmen for the term of 12 months. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board or the Deputy chairman shall convene and chair the meeting of the Supervisory Board. The meetings of the Supervisory Boards can be held as ordinary or extraordinary meetings.

3) The members of the Supervisory Board will be advised no less than 14 days in advance of the intended meeting of the Supervisory Board. Notwithstanding the failure to observe the aforesaid 14 day period, the meeting of the Supervisory Board can still be held, provided that the representatives of all Ordinary Members approve the decision of holding the meeting and its agenda.

4) The notice on the Supervisory Board's meeting shall be sent to all the members of the Supervisory Board via registered mail with the acknowledgment of receipt or via courier, and contains in particular the information on:

a) the date, the hours and the place of the meeting,

b) the agenda of the meeting, including drafts of the resolutions, which are to be adopted at the meeting,

5) Each Ordinary Member has the right to appoint one representative to the Supervisory Board. During the Supervisory Board's meeting, the member of the Supervisory Board holds the number of votes, as defined pursuant to the § 5 of this Chapter.

6) The Supervisory Board has the right to define in a detailed way the scope of each member of the Board's duties.

7) The tasks and duties of the Supervisory Board are to:

a) define the general guidelines for the development of the Association and approve the Board's action plans;

b) evaluate and give its opinions on the work of the Board and grant vote of approval to the Board;

c) undertake the audit of the accounts, monitor the compliance of the Association's financial results with the accounting documents and the applicable law. The Supervisory Board has the right to request the Board to provide it with reports and explanations;

d) consider and approve the annual financial statement of the Association for the previous financial year;

e) consider and approve the Association's activity report for the previous year;

f) decide on joining national or international organizations;

g) appoint and dismiss members of the Board, including the President of the Board, employ and terminate the employment of members of the Board, or conclude civil law contracts with members of the Board, which will stipulate the value and the form of members of the Board remuneration, in particular the mandate contracts, specific work contracts or contracts defining the remuneration for meetings. For the purposes of performing the contract concluded between the Association and the member of the Board, as well as in case of a dispute, the Association shall be represented by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board or the proxy, appointed by the resolution of the Supervisory Board;

h) modify the provisions of the Statutes of the Association;

i) decide on the dissolution and liquidation of the Association;

j) express its consent to the sale, lease or rent of the Association's real estate;

k) express its consent to the acquisition of the real estate;

l) merge with other associations;

m) incur loans;

n) perform other tasks stipulated in these Statutes.

8) The ordinary meeting of the Supervisory Board shall be convened by the President of the Board once a year with the purpose of: considering and approving the financial statement and the Association's activity report for the previous year, adopting the resolution on granting vote of approval to the Board, adopting the resolution on the division of the profits or financing of losses. The ordinary meeting of the Supervisory Board shall be convened on a day within 6 months after the end of the calendar year for which the financial statement and the report on Association's activity will be considered and approved.

9) The extraordinary meeting of the Supervisory Board can be convened by the decision of the Board any time the Board considers it necessary. In addition, the Board is obliged to convene the extraordinary meeting of the Supervisory Board, at the request of Ordinary Members who control at the time of filing the request, at least 25% of votes in the Supervisory Board – in such case the meeting will be convened for a day within 1 month after the day of receiving the request, unless the Ordinary Members who filed the request, defined the later date for the meeting of the Supervisory Board. In case the Board fails to convene the meeting of the Supervisory Board under the procedure described in this clause, the meeting of the Supervisory Board shall be convened by the Chairman, Deputy chairman or the member of the Supervisory Board.

10) The meetings of the Supervisory Board shall have a quorum, which enable adopting resolutions, if it is attended by the representatives of the Ordinary Members who hold at least half of all the votes in the Supervisory Board. If the meeting convened for a particular day does not have the aforesaid quorum, the meeting of the Supervisory Board shall be convened for another day within 1 month after the previous date of the meeting. The meeting convened under the procedure described in the preceding sentence, shall have a quorum and shall be entitled to adopt resolutions, irrespective of the number of the representatives present.

11) The meetings of the Supervisory Board can be held in the form of teleconference or in other forms enabling remote participation – with the use of means of communication which ensure undisturbed proceedings. Meetings held in the forms described in the preceding sentence shall be considered valid and the resolutions adopted on such meetings shall be considered effective (notwithstanding other formal requirements stipulated in the provisions of these Statutes) provided the Chairman of the Supervisory Board or a person appointed by him prepares the minutes of the meeting, which will include all of the resolutions adopted at the meeting and the number of votes given on each resolution, and the minutes are signed by the Chairman and the members of the Supervisory Board who attended the meeting.

11a) In case when meeting of the Supervisory Board cannot be convened but there is a necessity to adopt resolutions, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board may order passing of the resolutions in a circular mode or by the wiki platform, sending the drafts of the resolutions to all Members of the Supervisory Board. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board or the person appointed by him, prepares the minutes of the proceedings described above, which include the adopted resolutions and number of votes given on each resolution. Excluded from being adopted under the procedure described in this clause are those resolutions, which must be adopted by the Supervisory Board at the ordinary meeting.

12) Unless otherwise stated in these Statutes, all the resolutions of the Supervisory Board require a simple majority of votes of the representatives of the Ordinary Members present at the meeting.

13) Voting in the Supervisory Board shall be open, unless it concerns the appointment and the dismissal of the members of the Board of the Association or granting them vote of approval.

14) Minutes of the meetings of the Supervisory Board shall be prepared.

15) Voting on matters not included in the agenda is possible provided all the members of the Supervisory Board are present at the meeting and give their consent to include given matters into the agenda of the meeting. The motion on adopting particular resolution can be submitted by the representatives to the Supervisory Board present at the meeting.

16) The modification of the Statutes' provisions can only be made by the resolution of the Supervisory Board adopted by the majority of 2/3 of votes and in the presence of the members of the Supervisory Board controlling at least 3/4 of votes.

17) The dissolution of the Association and its liquidation can only be made by the resolution of the Supervisory Board adopted by the majority of 2/3 of votes in the presence of the members of the Supervisory Board controlling at least 3/4 of votes.

§ 10 – the distribution of votes

1) Each Ordinary Member hold through his representative to the Supervisory Board votes, the number of which is the the relation of the paid membership fee due from this Ordinary Member for the current payment period to the total amount of the paid membership fees due from all the current Ordinary Members for that payment period. The value of the membership fee to be paid by the Ordinary Member shall not exceed the value defined pursuant to the provisions of these Statutes.

2) A representative of a single Ordinary Member, irrespective of the value of the membership fee paid, cannot hold more than 25% of votes in the Supervisory Board and cannot make independent decisions on behalf of the Supervisory Board, in particular he cannot adopt resolutions, including resolutions on the modification of the Statutes' provisions.
